

Lancaster Chamber

Thomas Baldrige

President and CEO
The Lancaster Chamber

Thomas T. Baldrige is president and CEO of The Lancaster Chamber, an organization with over 1,300 members dedicated to creating business and community vitality. Mr. Baldrige has held this position since 2000. He received the designation of Certified Chamber Executive in 2008 from the American Chamber of Commerce Executives. In 2003 and 2013, The Lancaster Chamber was judged Chamber of the Year by an organization of its peers. Previously, Mr. Baldrige was president of The Lancaster Alliance, an organization focused on the revitalization of the City of Lancaster.

Mr. Baldrige has also served as executive vice president and director of government and public affairs at The Lancaster Chamber of Commerce & Industry, assistant director of communications for the Senate of Pennsylvania and scheduling coordinator for Governor Dick Thornburgh.

Mr. Baldrige earned a B.S. from Ithaca College and has completed graduate courses at Elmira College.

Mr. Baldrige is a former Chair of the board of directors of the Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives and serves on the boards of Lancaster General Health, Economic Development Company of Lancaster County, the Workforce Development Board, the Lancaster County Transportation Authority, the City Reinvestment and Improvement Zone (CRIZ) Authority, Lancasterhistory.org, and Thaddeus Stevens College of Technology.

He resides in Lancaster with his wife Susan. The couple has three adult children and four grandchildren.